NEW RECORD FOR CHRISTMAS

Edward Dean of Lyme has been in Norwich to attend the apperior see. Twenty Per Cent. More Matter Handled Than Ever Before is the Estimate Made at Norwich Post Office-Parcel Post Room Flooded Wednesday and Indications for Even Bigger Rush Today.

At least 20 per cent, more Christmas mail than ever before, costing 20 per cent. more to take care of it, was the report made at the post office on Wednesday evening where the force was putting in extra hours with extra men in order to handle what was piled up in front of them in the form of letters, postal cards and parcel post packages.

Half hour collections had been made from the boxes at the Boston store all the afternoon, yet without being able to keep the boxes empty so fast did the people keep putting new mail packages in at this place.

The R. F. D. man on the Ledyard route who went out with an express wagon load on his trip, did not return to the post office until 8 o'clock at right and the same experience of over-hours was on all the routes.

OCCUM STOREKEEPER ARRESTED FOR RAPE Charged With Assault by Mrs. Phoebe

$1,00 Bonds.

Lerence-Out Until Saturday Under

Fred Fontaine, 36 years old, was brought in from Occum by Constable Lambert on Wednesday afternoon and locked up at Norwich police station on the charge of rape. He was released later under a bond of $1,000 furnished by Renie Gatwin of Baltic until Saturday morning, when he will be called to answer to the charge in the city court. At the present time he denies all knowledge of the matter. He is married, and so is the woman in the affair, whose name is Phoebe Lerence, and who claims that she went to the store kept by Fontain in Occum Tuesday morning about 6.30. He assault her and clapped his hand over her mauth so that she could make no outcry, she said. Wednesday she was in bed when she complained to the constable and she was attended by Dr. Thompson of Taftville. There were marks and bruises on her body.

The first and most crying need will be economy. That should be the watchword of the session and the spenders should be given a scant encouragement when they make their attacks upon the treasury in view of what we know of the state's financial position.——aftenia Sentinel.

Growth of Boy Scouts.

National headquarters, Boy Scouts of America, has recently issued a list showing the comparative numbers of certificates and badges issued. This is an interesting demonstration of the growth of the movement. In September, October and November, 1913, 13,216 certificates were issued, against 25,118 in the same months of 1914. In these months 13,132 were issued in 1913 against 21,627 in 1914.
